From your editors

It has been a lovely summer, in which we have been able to spend plenty of time on the water. Sometimes it was just too hot, sometimes too wet, and frequently there was loads of wind. For most of us, the holidays are coming to an end. This includes the TVK Newsletter editors, who have been hard at work to assemble this edition. The magazines Waterkampioen and Zilt may have recently been pulled from the presses, but your TVK Newsletter is here to stay. Enjoy the read!

We will detail the program in the next Newsletter, with a link to the digital application form, as previously done with the Spring Meeting.

Dutch Classic Yacht Regatta 2019

TVK members again participated in the Dutch Classic Yacht Regatta, held on 24-28 July 2019 in Hellevoetsluis. The results show the names of Hymke Spanjaard and Thomas De Beats, who were part of the same group. Hymke and her Undine, a Volksboot, came in 10th place. Thomas placed a little higher, and came in 8th place with his Lupe, a Trintella Ia. Thomas also came in 9th place of the Funrace from Willemstad to Hellevoetsluis, which took place on the 26 July. Congratulations to both on these results.

For all results, please see DCYR website.

Technical Information Bulletin No. 1 about sailing emblem: revised and extended

The technical information bulletin No. 1 now discusses both the old sailing emblem as applicable to older Trintellas as well as the new sailing emblem (the specially designed T). This emblem applies to the later Trintella A and C series.

The bulletin now also covers the application of the Trintella type hull stickers.

We notice that many owners have developed their own designs. Based on the old shipyard's archives, we now advise the new standard.

Furthermore, so-called vector files are now available for sailing emblems and stickers, so they can be printed in a modern way. Good luck "pimping" your mainsail and hull this winter!

Read by You and for You

We have probably all come across it: the Afsluitdijk. A famous obstacle to the lovely Vlieland or the perilous German waters. We frequently have to wait for the lock, because everybody wants to get through with high waters. For those who have been through this ordeal: good news! A second lock will be made near Kornwerderzand. And not only will there be a new lock, the entire Afsluitdijk will be refurbished and made ready for the next 80 years. You can read more here.

De wereldreis van de Quo Vadis

Tiberiu Coroliuc met zijn gezin startten vorig jaar augustus aan een wereldreis met hun Trintella 38 Quo Vadis. We hebben er in een eerdere Nieuwsbrief over gepubliceerd. Ze delen hun avonturen via Instagram. Erg leerzaam, want ze delen zowel hoogte- als dieptepunten van hun verblijf op zee. En het is natuurlijk mooi te lezen dat een Trintella thuis is op de wereldzeeën. www.instagram.com/voyagers\_under\_sail

Dutch sailing magazines Zilt and Waterkampioen have been pulled from the presses

We mentioned it earlier in this Newsletter: the online sailing magazine Zilt has been pulled from the presses. The magazine was first published in 2007, and always had some interesting stories to tell. While the Zilt Magazine is gone, the weekly weekend weather update will remain.

Would you like to reread some of your favourite articles? No problem. All 159 published editions can be found on their website:

<http://www.ziltmagazine.com/archief.html>

A little more bad news: the ANWB Waterkampioen will also no longer be published.

A final farewell can be found in their last article on the ANWB website.
